

INTERNATIONAL JUNIOR GOLF ACADEMY

ACADEMIC PROGRAM

The International Junior Golf Academy is a place where junior golfers can live the dream of combining their passion for golf with a top-tier education. IJGA offers nine months of combined school and training for junior golfers ready to reach the next level.

Emphasizing both intensive training and scholastic achievement through the nationally accredited Heritage Academy and Hilton Head Preparatory School, IJGA has produced some of the best junior golfers playing on the most elite junior golf tours. As a result, nearly all of our students receive college scholarships to the top collegiate golf programs in the United States.

The Academy program at IJGA has proven for decades how to maximize junior golf performance for competition and university. We place Athletic & Individual Development as a priority and ensure that our students are confident competitors. IJGA offers nine months of combined training and full-time schooling for junior golfers ready to reach the next level.

Training

IJGA uses a complete-athlete training curriculum that addresses all key areas of peak performance stressing methodical, purposeful training to achieve the best results.

Coaching

IJGA offers a team of expertly trained coaches, led by Director of Golf Jonathan Yarwood, committed to elite golf training, bringing with them years of industry experience and world-class backgrounds. Our coaches will develop and implement a coaching strategy to elevate your game.

Academics

The academic partners of the IJGA are on Hilton Head Island, South Carolina.

Heritage Academy and Hilton Head Prep offers I-20 authorizations and provides many special programs including College Preparatory courses and English as a Second Language (ESL) for foreign students.

Housing

IJGA students live in The Village, a gated community on Old Carolina's campus. Spacious living quarters allow students to relax and feel at home.

89 Old Carolina Drive, Bluffton, SC 29910
